Radio Announcement Clue

Teacher Instructions:

Ten minutes into the game, please flick the lights in your room on and off and then read aloud the following announcement in bold below, as if it's coming over the radio. Read this announcement aloud at least three times. After the announcement has been read, feel free to leave the announcement on the table for the students to read and look at if they need additional help figuring out this clue. The clue is to the arrow multi-lock, hidden within this announcement, so everyone will need to listen carefully.

“Attention! Attention!

This local radio announcement is to help you make the right decision about the approaching emergency. Citizens should put down what they are doing and seek shelter right away. If you have left anything behind, don't worry. You can pick up your lost items after the emergency has passed.

Thank you and stay safe.”
